

Scholarship for Voice Training

The Choral Society of the Hamptons is offering five hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarships in vocal study to high school students in their sophomore, junior or senior year. Each of the following East End schools may submit applications for up to five (5) students.

Bridgehampton High School

East Hampton High School

Hampton Bays High School

Pierson High School

The Ross School

Shelter Island High School

Southampton High School

Westhampton Beach High School

The applications must be completed and submitted no later than May 6, 2024. Students will sing their solo for members of the Scholarship Committee on Monday, May 20, 2024 at the Bridgehampton Presbyterian Church. The winner(s) will be announced shortly thereafter.

Music for the auditions should be selected from a repertoire of sacred music, opera, classical music, or show tunes. The student should provide two copies of the selection; one for the accompanist and one for the committee.

The Scholarship for Voice Training will be administered by the Choral Society of the Hamptons. Students who receive a scholarship should submit a bill for voice instruction within one year, by an accredited instructor, to The Choral Society of the Hamptons, in an amount up to $500.00.
